

Death & dying – out of the shadows

By Emilie Clark

1987...

Then life began...

I met hospice...

CanTeen...

The future...

"Your future in nursing? You will enjoy... oops, it's changing. You will go on a long...oops, it's changing again."

Future workforce...

Palliative care is HARD

Change – BLAH!

New grad nurses in palliative care?

The big “E”...and me...

“...not all deaths, even with the best of care, have such a fortuitous outcome.”

“...professional pride prevents many people working in the field from hearing what some of their patients are actually saying.”

Letter to the Editor: Sunday Star-Times, 11 Oct 2015

Let’s talk about death!

He aha te mea nui o te ao

What is the most important thing in the world?

He tangata, he tangata, he tangata

It is the people, it is the people, it is the people

“Only time (whatever that may be) will tell”

Stephen Hawking

Thank you!

*Today me will live in the moment,
unless it's unpleasant,
in which case me will eat a cookie.*

• Cookie Monster

