

Hot Topics in Palliative Care

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr Sarah Russell, Head of Research at Hospice UK, Visiting Fellow at the University of Southampton, Florence Nightingale Foundation Travel Scholar and Joint Editor of the European Journal of Palliative Care.

DETAILS

Date: Wednesday 16 May 2018

Time: 9.00am – 4.30pm
Registration from 8.30am

Where: The Dunedin Public Art Gallery
The Octagon
Dunedin

Cost: $80 members PCNNZ
$100 non-members PCNNZ
(numbers limited)

Morning & afternoon tea included. BYO lunch or visit the local cafes

TOPICS

- Advance Care Planning
- Self- Care
- Nurses and Moral Distress.
- Contemplating potential implications if euthanasia were legalised in New Zealand – a facilitated panel discussion.
- Values and suffering – what can we learn from the great philosophers’?
- Staying connected in the midst of it all: harnessing social media to strengthen palliative care.

• Please pay by direct credit to:

PCNNZ: ANZ 01-0961-0125443-00
Use surname as reference and SD2018 as code.

For further information please contact:
Glenda Hall, Otago Community Hospice
Phone 03 4736005
Email: glenda.hall@otagohospice.co.nz

Palliative Care Nurses New Zealand are pleased to offer this study day hosted by Otago Community Hospice. It is for nurses and allied health professionals with an interest in the palliative care. This will be an interactive education opportunity for sharing, discussion and networking.

REGISTRATION

Please pay by direct credit as above and also return completed registration below by email to treasurer@pcnnz.co.nz or fax to 03 4736015. Registrations close Friday 4 May 2018

Name:
Address:
Job Title:		Organisation:
Email:		Mobile:

WE WILL CONFIRM YOUR PLACE BY EMAIL