

HOT TOPICS IN PALLIATIVE CARE
 Date: Wednesday 16 May
 Time: 0830-1630
 Venue: Dunedin Public Art Gallery.

8.30 - 9.00am		Registration - Tea & Coffee available
9.00 - 9.15am	Opening and welcome Hata Temo - Otago University - Kaitohutohu, Maori Cultural Advisor Jacqui Bowden-Tucker, PCNNZ / Glenda Hall, Otago Community Hospice
9.15 - 10.15am	Advance care planning and living with dying: the views of hospice patients. Dr Sarah Russell (Head of Research at Hospice UK, Visiting Fellow at the University of Southampton, Florence Nightingale Foundation Scholar and Joint Editor of the European Journal of Palliative Care).
10.15 - 10.30am	Morning tea
10.30 - 11.15am	Nurses and moral distress. Sarah Wilson, RN, Palliative Care Advisory Service, Dunedin Hospital, SDHB.
11.15 - 12.05pm	Compassion and the right to choose: an exploration of the difficult link between suffering and autonomy. Dr Simon Walker, Lecturer-Bioethics, University of Otago.
12.05 - 1.00pm		Lunch
1.00 - 2.30pm	Panel Discussion-Medically assisted dying: The Implications of a change in the law for palliative care nursing. Ms Lis Latta - (RN, Professional Practice Fellow + Ambulatory medicine, Department of Medicine University of Otago) Ms Wendy Findlay , Nursing Director, Wellsouth PHO. Hata Temo -(Otago University - Kaitohutohu, Maori Cultural Advisor) Dr Tanya Park - (RN, Assistant Professor, Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Programs, Faculty of Nursing University Alberta, Edmonton, Canada) Dr Simon Walker – (Lecturer, Bioethics, University of Otago) Ms Jacqui Bowden-Tucker – (Chair, PCNNZ) Facilitator: Ms Ginny Green (CEO, Otago Community Hospice).
2.30 - 2.45pm		Afternoon Tea
2.30 - 3.30pm	Staying connected in the midst of it all: Harnessing social media to strengthen palliative care nursing. Dr Sarah Russell (Head of Research at Hospice UK) and Dr Aileen Collier (Senior Lecturer, Te Arai Palliative Care and End of life research group, University of Auckland)
3.30 - 4.15pm	'Maori Tai Chi' - cleansing the pathway interactive session. Te Hau Moses (Otago Community Hospice, Waitakawaenga)
4.15 - 4.30pm	Close of the Day Evaluations - Glenda Hall & Jacqui Bowden-Tucker Hata Temo - Otago University - Kaitohutohu, Maori Cultural Advisor	